How Do I Find the Citation Elements for a Web Page?

How do I cite a Web page?

Look for the following elements:

- TITLE of the ARTICLE.
- TITLE of the WEB SITE.
- AUTHOR (do not use generalized name like “Staff Authors.” An author can be a person or an organization.
- DATE published or most recent update.
- PUBLISHER or SPONSOR.

TITLE of WEB SITE

Tip: Usually upper left corner (to verify, cut the URL to the “First Single Slash”)

TITLE of ARTICLE

Tip: sentence style

AUTHOR

Tip: make sure your author passes the credibility test

DATE

Tip: top or bottom of article - use MOST recent
NO DATE = NO DO

PUBLISHER or SPONSOR

Tip: Usually located after the ©
(EXAMPLE: © Condé Nast) - sometimes this is the same name as the web site name

How do I cite a Web page?

Look for the following elements:

- TITLE of the ARTICLE.
- TITLE of the WEB SITE.
- AUTHOR (do not use generalized name like “Staff Authors.” An author can be a person or an organization.
- DATE published or most recent update.
- PUBLISHER or SPONSOR.

TITLE of WEB SITE

Tip: Usually upper left corner (to verify, cut the URL to the “First Single Slash”)

TITLE of ARTICLE

Tip: sentence style

AUTHOR

Tip: make sure your author passes the credibility test

DATE

Tip: top or bottom of article - use MOST recent
NO DATE = NO DO

PUBLISHER or SPONSOR

Tip: Usually located after the ©
(EXAMPLE: © Condé Nast) - sometimes this is the same name as the web site name

Wired.com © Condé Nast. All rights reserved ...